

ANTISUFFRAGISTS TO MEET GOV. COX

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 29.—Gov. Cox has been requested to grant a hearing to the women of the South on questions of "state rights and party honor." In a telegram sent to the Democratic presidential nominee by the Southern Women's league for rejection of the Susan B. Anthony amendment, it was signed by Mrs. James S. Pinkard, of Montgomery, Ala., president-general of the league.

The message declared that the "home-loving women of the South, who do not picket, card-index or blackmail candidates, appeal to you as the leader of the Democratic party to grant us a hearing not on woman suffrage, which any state can adopt for itself without changing a comma of the federal constitution, but on two fundamental Democratic principles, state rights and party honor."

VOTE FOR AMENDMENT NOT VIOLATION OF OATH

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 29.—Any members of the Tennessee legislature may vote either for or against the Susan B. Anthony amendment when it comes up for ratification at the special session of the legislature which is scheduled for Aug. 5, without violating his oath of office, according to an opinion rendered here by Gen. James A. Fowler, former assistant U. S. attorney-general under President Taft, in reply to a query put by State Senator E. E. Patton, Republican.

The provisions of the state and federal constitutions which appear at first glance to contradict each other, do not do so in reality, Gen. Fowler holds, as in his opinion, the provisions of the state constitution which require that the legislature which acts upon a federal constitutional amendment be elected after the amendment is passed by congress is rendered a nullity by the federal constitution, which holds that an amendment is ratified after three-fourths of the states have voted for ratification, making no stipulation as to the election of the members of state legislatures. The opinion further states that when the federal and state constitutions fail to agree, the federal constitution takes precedence.

HUNTSVILLE, ALA., FIGHTS SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., July 29. (Sp.)—A petition addressed to the Democrats of the South and protesting to them against the ratification of the Anthony amendment to the federal constitution, conferring the ballot upon women, is being circulated in Huntsville. The petition, it is expected, will be forwarded to the Tennessee legislature for presentation when it assembles, August 5, in extra session. Objection to the amendment, it is stated, is based on the conditions that would result in giving the ballot to Southern negro women as well as white.

COX GRANTS HEARING.

DAYTON, O., July 29.—"The request for a hearing will be granted, of course," said Gov. Cox upon being informed last night of dispatches stating that the "Southern Women's league for rejection of the Susan B. Anthony amendment" were asking for a hearing. To a committee from the National Woman's party, the governor stated that he had two or three men working among members of the Tennessee legislature in an effort to secure ratification of the suffrage amendment.

FIGHTS FOR SUFFRAGE.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 29.—Miss Anita L. Pollitzer, of Charleston, S. C., representing the National Woman's party, today began a campaign in East Tennessee in an effort to secure ratification of the Nineteenth or woman suffrage amendment by the Tennessee legislature. She is concentrating herself about the attitude of East Tennessee members of the state legislature, whose position on suffrage is said to be doubtful.

M'ADOO WILL TAKE STUMP FOR GOV. COX

NEW YORK, July 29.—Wm. G. McAdoo announced today he had consented to deliver some speeches in behalf of Gov. Cox, the Democratic nominee, during what he said would be a vigorous and aggressive campaign.

In a statement issued after a conference with George White, chairman of the Democratic national committee, and Gov. Cox's secretary, held at Mr. McAdoo's home in Huntington last night, Mr. McAdoo warned that the people would not stand for a "purchased presidency" and urged that the spotlight of pitiless publicity be turned on campaign expenses during the forthcoming campaign.

Mr. McAdoo stated that at the conference "the formidable campaign fund under control of the Republican national committee and its serious menace in the forthcoming campaign" had been discussed.

Mr. McAdoo's statement, in part, follows: "A vigorous and aggressive campaign will be undertaken and no effort will be spared to make the people of the country acquainted, not alone with brought into the spotlight of pitiless publicity. The people will not stand for a purchased presidency."

"The problems before the country and the world are so grave that an election untainted by the corrupt use of money and determined by clean discussion and consideration of the issues themselves was never more necessary to the safety and security of American institutions."

"Gov. Cox stands for a clean election, for full and pitiless publicity of campaign contributions and their uses of progressive policies and the league of nations."

"The Democratic platform and the party offer the only refuge for the country for only those who believe in universal disarmament and the prevention of war through an honorable association of the nations which will substitute arbitration for military force in the settlement of international disputes."
